

JGI Chairman Jason Jackson Joins The Forbes Finance Council

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla., January 2017— Fort Lauderdale-based Jackson Global Initiative (JGI) today announced that its Chairman, Jason Jackson has accepted his invitation to join the esteemed Forbes Finance Council.

The Forbes Finance Council is the first of many industry-specific communities expected to launch under the Forbes Council's umbrella. An invitation-only organization for senior executives in successful accounting, finance and wealth management firms, members are leaders from world-class financial companies, each bringing their wealth of experience to shape their industries.

Jackson, a former Wells Fargo and HSBC banker has been noted for structuring groundbreaking investment transactions for the retail, real estate and healthcare sectors. The fund manager currently serves as the Chairman and Chief Investment Officer of IBS Investment Bank, an industry leader in managing corporate and real estate secured investments. "In our industry, success is driven by knowledge, the execution of strategy and the ability to remain fluid. Our business has made several adjustments over the years to maintain relevance to our clients. We are thankful to Forbes for valuing the uniqueness of our team", said Jason Jackson, JGI Chairman.
