

JGI Chairman Joins 2018 Noble Conference to Invest in Emerging Companies

JGI INVESTS IN THE GROWTH & MATURITY COMPANIES

Through its closely-held companies, JGI invests in a distinctive array of qualified American-based investment opportunities designed to bridge

WELLINGTON, FL, FEB. 2018— Wellington-based organizational development firm Jackson Global Initiative (JGI) today announced that its senior executive attended the 14th annual NobleCon14 to meet with middle market companies seeking debt and equity capital.

Located at the W Hotel in Fort Lauderdale Beach, the NobleCon14 was the 14th Annual Institutional Investor Conference/Microcap Showcase, founded by Noble Capital Markets'. The conference utilizes four tracks for companies to present to investors - run simultaneously in half-hour intervals - with total representation limited to 120 companies; a multi-sector blend of microcap emerging growth companies and more established small cap companies (market capitalization of $250 million - to $2 billion). One-on-one meetings between qualified investors and corporate executives are arranged and scheduled on behalf of participants. Topical panel presentations open to all attendees. Comprehensive evening networking events. Registration for investors is open to institutions, hedge fund managers, family offices, high-net-worth individuals, financial advisors, private equity and retail brokers. Fund managers from JGI company, IBS Investment Bank (IBS, N.A.) interviewed over 40 diverse, emerging companies, to identify potential investments.

"It was an absolute honor to be invited by our partners. Noble's invitation of IBS as a qualified institutional investor reflects the synergistic objectives between our companies. As a broker dealer, we rely on Noble to chart the course of our portfolio companies in their journey of global public offerings and other registered activities. As a private, institutional investor, Noble can continue to count on us to respond to the needs of their clients, swiftly and potently", IBS, N.A. CORP Chairman and Chief Investment Officer Jason Jackson told reporters.
